Telstar Regional High School Bethel, Maine

2007

Dedication

To choose a member of the Telstar staff that has influenced a large group of students is not an easy task. However, for the Class of 2007 a teacher stood out to us. A teacher that students can easily approach, ask him anything and always receive an honest answer. Filled with knowledge and always encouraging students to achieve at their highest level, William Morton is an outstanding teacher, and we recognize that here. Mr. Morton has taught us many great lessons --even some life lessons; as well as played music for us while we danced the night away. Mr. Morton has always exceeded our expectations.

And never forget: Speak softly and carry a big stick; you will go far - Theodore Roosevelt.

To The Class of 2007,
I would like to take this opportunity to express my congratulations and best wishes to each member of this great class. I feel fortunate to have had the chance to get to know many of you during your years in MSAD #44. I can still recall the time that many of you joined us for the Kindergarten screening sessions prior to the fall of your first year in school. Was it really that long ago? You have accomplished many great things during your years in our schools but you are now ready to begin the next chapter in your life. I hope you have made many good friends and established some lasting memories over your years with us. As you leave Telstar, I wish you the best of luck as you embark on new and exciting adventures.
Your Friend,
David W. Murphy, Ed.D.
Superintendent

To The Class Of 2007:

WHO FIRST SAID FALSE AS DREAMS?
NOT ONE WHO INTO THE WILD AND
WONDROUW WORLD THEY SWAY;
NO THINKER WHO HAS READ THEIR
MYSTIC LAW;
NO POET WHO HAS WEAVED THEM IN HIS DAY.

The above is an excerpt from Henry
Timrods poem DREAMS.
My message to you, the class of 2007 is that if you have a hope or dream you will foster it to its fullest.

Hopefully, through your experiences at Telstar, the seeds have been planted for you to envision such a hope or dream. You must also remember that for a hope or a dream to be fulfilled, you must develop a plan to carry it out. When obstacles are placed in your way, you must have the courage and conviction to overcome them.
Telstar has supplied the tools whereby this can be accomplished. The rest is up to you.

Theodore R. Davis
Principal

Congratulations to the class of 2007. It has been my pleasure to serve as your Dean of Students. I am proud of the leadership and character this class has developed over the past four years. I am confident that you will rise to the many challenges that await you and I look forward to hearing about your adventures as you enter a new phase of life.
Remember the lessons you have learned here and be sure there are more lessons for all of us to learn. Good luck and thank you.

Forever in your service,
Mr. Charles F. Raymond
Dean of students

My school career at SAD 44 was great. Granted, I struggled through it. I had a lot of support from a lot of teachers. Like Mr. Keane, Scott Parker, Mr. Raymond, Mr. Murphy and a lot of students. While I was in high school, I was a member of two fire departments, and a rescue department in the area which I lived.

Justin Barton

Justin would like to say thank you for making his educational trip an experience that was enjoyable. He now knows how to write the ABCs in order. A well job to all of you who took part in helping him surmount this milestone. I am a pretty person. I am a person of prettiness. My name is Justin and this is my story. Once upon a segment of time, I came here looking for education. What I received will stay with me for the rest of my biorhythm. Thanks for almost nothingness. I love you. I am still appealing.

Joseline Belanger

High School is made up of four years of memories that will last me a lifetime. It wouldn't have been the same without, The Carthage Crew, smuggling food into theatre with Tara, fireworks in Gorham, my 16th and 17th b-day parties, Whits parties, summer ball, camping with Kara, super bowl party at Megs, Chinese at midnight, the fourth wheel, concert with Kara and Tara, jet skiing with Meg, Maxwell I will never forget them all, deep hole with Tara, and state champs 06. A lifetime friendship with Kayla, biking, swimming, singing loud, trouble, 1001 talks, dancing like crazy, lots of laughs, and knowing it will never end. Thanks to my friends love you all. Mom & Dad I couldn't have done it without you, you're the best, I love you. Josh what's to say you have been my inspiration through it all. Thanks for being there, love you. To the class of 07, the wait is over; now let's head into life with a positive attitude, and good luck to all.

Mallory Blake

Kristie, I wish you could be here graduating with us. Brittany, Marya, and Jacki: You've always been the best of friends. Thanks to all my teachers for working so hard and sometimes making things difficult. I would have hated it any other way.

Marya Brooks

These past four years have been interesting; there have been many people coming and going, new friends and lost friends, and many lessons learned. I guess it's not as bad as people make it sound, but I'm ready to move on. I will miss a few people, though; Mr. Morton, thanks for always listening to my complaints and problems, you helped out a lot and I'll miss you; Mrs. Southam, you made school so much better, you were always so excited to teach and I love that; Lauren C., you are probably the funniest person I know and I will miss you so much! London Bridge baby! ; all my other friends, you guys rock!; Mom and Dad, you have always been there for me and I couldn't ask for better parents; lastly, Amber B., I want you to know that you are the best sister anyone could have and I love you so much. You'll continue to do great in school and in life, I know that for a fact. I guess that's it; good luck, 07s. It's been fun.

Chelsey Brown

Allen Buck

The thing that I'm going to miss the most is hanging out with my friends, playing baseball, and all the other good times spent at the after school activities. I would like to thank my parents for getting me through all my years of school, pushing me to do the best that I can and pass so I can do what I want with my life.

Joshua Campbell

This is a senior write up unlike any you have ever read. This write up will not be full of four years crammed into 950 characters not making any sense to anyone outside the bubble that is Telstar. This write-up is simple and really does nothing but waste your time. As if it was a symbol of my High School career: a lot of build up and at the end it won't make a difference

Crystal Casey

We had a great time together going to homecoming and prom. Loved the cold camping trip guys. Bowling for my birthday was a blast, Meg remember throwing the bowling ball down the lane. Mal we sure gave Tonya and Meg a run for their money. Mal all the times we hung out together. I enjoyed the pushing you all did in getting me out there. Kelsie all the fun we had in interact, yearbook, student council, and NHS. Jen thanks for the many surprises you gave me in our friendship and sharing the pains of history and NHS with me. Meg remember all the talk about guys and our relationships we can't stand most of the time. Tonya, I think back to all the great things we all did together. Everyone else thanks for a great two years and the friendships that we've shared. Congratulations class of 2007 we may have slept through most of it, but we've finally come to the end of the road and now we take our own paths through life were ever it may lead us.

Hannah Chapman

High school may seem hard but get through all the hard stuff and keep your head high. Brady Im so proud of you...Beryl I've loved watching you grow up over the years. Stay cool and Stay in school!!! Mom and Dad I love you guys thanks for all the support. Little Brandon I can't wait to watch you grow up! Henley I miss ya lots and we'll come see you soon! Jason thanks for giving me the best year of my life and all the happiness I could ask for. Love ya babe! I'm outta here.

Jacquelyn Coffin

This is where everyone writes the same thing, the classics. The we've all come so far, the it's been great guys, but I'm glad it's over, and of course, the very classy, peace I'm out. Well I personally cannot do it. The same old same old gets rather boring after awhile. We all know that we have come so far, and I am sure we are all thrilled that we have made it this far, and I am almost one hundred percent positive that we are all very glad that this torture is finally over. With that in mind, instead of using the same old classy lines that everyone else will probably write I am going to leave you with my all time favorite quote. This is from the ever so fabulous Forrest Gump. My mama always said life was like a box of chocolates. You just never know what your gonna get.

Brittany Cole

High school has been a learning experience for me. I have waited so long for graduation. Mom, Dad and Andy thank you all for teaching me to be myself and supporting me as I grew up. I love you all. Bronson even though we ARE siblings I have had some fun growing up with you, thank you for always giving me good advice and teaching me how to drive stick. April, Marya, Jessica, Jacki, Lindsay and JJ without all of you high school just wouldn't have been as much fun. Charlie and Kevin you guys are great and I am glad we became such good friends. Drama really helped me discover myself and I have had a lot of fun doing it, hopefully it will stick around for the underclassmen to enjoy. Ransom and Kenny I will see you at the track next year! Michael Field, thank you for always encouraging me to try my hardest and making me feel like I could accomplish anything, I love you for that. All my fellow classmates of 2007, I hope every one of you accomplish your dreams because life is too short to settle for less.

Ransom Cole

When you finally become a senior you start to realize just how much those memories made mean to you. Time that you can never get back, but will go with you wherever your life takes you; New friends, Places, Experiences, Adventures, Things that right now might not seem like much right now, but in time will be looked at in a whole new perspective. Ill never forget the great times I have spent with my friends and family. Easily way to many of them to list. I could say that my friends have had a dramatic affect on who I am today. Life just wouldn't be the same if I didnt have them in it, and even though no one knows exactly what lies ahead of them after they leave school. I know that no matter what happens, my friends will be there for me. "Dont let others sway you from your own dreams. Sometimes its just better to follow your own path then to take directions from those who think they know the better route."

Lauren Conroy

Write-Up: Mom and Dad. Thank you. You are amazing people and parents. Tommy-good luck! Marya; Co-Captains, Co-Workers, I'm a boss!. Tara & Kara, High school wouldn't have been half as fun without you two. Jess & Erin: i'm constantly laughing! FH girls & skiers, love you! Rebel Boys- you're all crazy, but I'll miss you! Mr. Morton & Gilby; you both taught me so much. Camp Jordan, Carthage, 06's & 08's, NC, Ptown, TGS, roadtrips, October 23; Good Luck Class of 2007!

Braydon Crockett-Rice

My family is the biggest part of why I am leaving this year! Homework was never the first thing on my mind! But in the end every grade made it by that scary number 70! And going to Kevin's house practically everyday after school just for him to raise his voice about the work I did fantastically! I never thought about how things would really be when I left school, and now that its here I dont want to leave! All of that is now behind us, and its time to move on. Never look into the future and get excited over graduation. Instead look into the present and enjoy what your living! Looking into the future only wastes the life your living, it will come Nothing is as far away as one minute ago! Creating a new life will be hard but ill always remember to live life making sure that today is better than yesterday, but never as good as tomorrow! If you want a happy ending, it all depends on where you stop your story! - Orson Welles.

Albert Curtis

First of all I would like to thank my mom and dad for dealing with me for the past 17 years pushing me though school freshman year might have not been my greatest but I made it remembering all the time with friends like Josh M, Zack G, Nick D, Josh C, Andrew B, Allen B, Jennell P, Danielle H, for example like in English class Puddin Kayla F, Ashley B, Erica M, JJ, Nikki. Dyana-Marie Dyke

Four years come and gone. It seems like it was over in a heartbeat. Thinking on it I realize Im glad for the experience. At least I survived it, eh? We did it- Diana P, Nikki, Heather, and Brittany; we DID it. I loved every moment of it; even the chaos. Remember out crazed lunch-time antics and all of our bizarre excursions? We led a twisted high-school career and the only thing I would change is the time and date of my grand epiphany, instead of waiting until the end to realize what I had here. Hindsight 20/20, right? Hehe. And to those I leave behind- Chelsea, Ariel, Taylor- it'll go by quicker than you think, youll wonder where the time went. Now its off to bigger and grander things-maybe well stay in touch, maybe we wont. But remember Ana loves you and its the friends from back home that always have that special place in a persons heart. I wouldntve made it if not for you guys. Au revoir mon amize- je taime. I love y'all.

Kayla Fitzmorris

Kaleb Hayes

Looking back on the previous years I wonder how I made it this far. At my current rate I may be writing this again next year. The first five years were great. Middle school was painful and I'll leave it at that, but High school was one of the best things that happened to me. I made a lot of friends and bad lots of fun. Relationships for me were a very small part, but then again I would have to go with a quote on this; Suzumiya Haruhi said, Feelings of love are just a temporary lapse of judgment. Though I don't thoroughly believe that; I do think it fits here. My friends, Brandon R., Jake D., Ransom C., Jacki C., Kevin G., Danny O., Paul S., etc... School was fun, but you guys really made it worth wild. Friends are gone, work has begun, I now feel smart, but now we must depart, I'll remember whatever I start, because my friends are always in my heart.

Tonya Hebert

As I sit and ponder the last twelve years so many great times and friends come to mind. This class is truly amazing. Megan youve been my friend since 1st grade and I must say it has been an amazing 11 years. Mallory it seems like just yesterday I was playing with your ding dong ring and you and Ashley were pulling out chunks of my hair. Jen we met in 6th grade because you drew kick butt circles. The times we have shared are priceless. Kelsie wow have we really been friends since 4th grade? Its been great. Fab Five cavi trips over a cliff, Ill never feel the same driving fast. John, thank you for being amazing. Mom and dad thanks for always being there for me and supporting me. Lacey, you are an amazing sister and second mom, I love you. Dan youve been a great brother in law, thank you for always being my comic relief you dirty hippie. And finally to the class of 2007 you guys are amazing and I will miss all of you. I love you guys!

Crystal Herrick

Congratulations class of 2007, we finally made it! Now that high school is over, and most people have already started to plan out the rest of their future it is time to take a minute and look back at the good times. There have been a lot of great memories with a lot of special people, you know who you guys are, and you know the memories I'm talking about! March 11, 2006 the best day of my life, the day the love of my life was born, my daughter, Deserae Marie Hutchinson. Evan it has been a great three years and hopefully many more to come. I love you both forever and always. There are two very important people in my life that have shown me a great deal of support, without my parents I would not be where I am right now. Once again. Congratulations class of 2007!

Everything happens for a reason. Learn from your mistakes and love what you have become, no matter what people have to say when you walk with your head held high. Mom-words cant describe the "thanks" for everything. To my friends, you know who you are, good luck & i love you plus thanks for everything. "La vida es buena"

Evan Hutchinson

Well first off, I'm glad to be in the back of the year book, right where we belong I suppose. Seeing how I'm doing this day before its due, it might not meet the potential quality that it could have. Wow, that sounds familiar. Anyways, I came here my Freshmen year and I knew no-one. Over the past four years I've made numerous friendships that influenced my life, and had a daughter along the way. (I love you Crystal and Dez) I have to say without the support of my loyal friends, I might not even be in school right now. Therefore, I would like to thank all my friends and I'm not going to write you all down, because I don't want to leave anyone out by accident. Good luck to Telstar football in the coming years, and word up to my boys from the Unit. Say something

Whitney James

High school is a time where mistakes will be made and lessons will be learned. Never: go in reverse, slow down, lean on a window, say goodbye, oversleep, watch fireworks alone, keep your phone on silent, wax your legs, forget, choose the locals, close your eyes, ride shotgun, be seen in Carthage, share your towel, or tan with sneakers. Always: go head first, bring your own food to the theater, take pictures, go out to breakfast, sing loud, snowmobile with three, close the door, smile, eat chinese at midnight, have a fourth wheel, watch the whole movie, go to OOB in the rain, roll down the window, remember. Thanks to all my friends that have been with me throughout it all. Thanks to my dad, my favorite person, teacher and buddy. Thanks to my mom for being so understanding and to my sister for her lessons on life. To all my family, thanks for the support, I love you all. Class of '07, congratulations and good luck on the road ahead!

Ransom, Jacki, Brittany, Charlie, JB, Kevin, JJ, and Nick I've had so many good times with all of you. Thank you for being there for me through it all whether it was beating the Mazda, swimming at Lake Christopher, hanging out at Wal-Mart and paying with quarters, going out to eat at Wal-Mart, hanging out in a ditch, Deephole, Spencers, just randomly driving around being hyper, energy drinks, the drags, or just putting up with me. "Everyone dies, but not everyone lives" A. Sachs. "The edge... the only people who really know where it is are the ones who have gone over" Hunter S. Thompson. Thank you to the teachers that have pushed me all through high school, especially Mrs. Bennett for always being there. Thanks for everything class of 2007. Good Luck.

Brandon Roberts

First off, this write-up is last minute, much like my schoolwork. That being said, I can't believe that I made it! Thank the Gods for my friends Danny O, Kaleb H, Evan H, Kevin G, Marya B, Jessica P, Charles H, Ransom C, Mike C, Paul S, and Molly K, who make life interesting. I'll never forget Sacred Circle Tuesdays at my house (of course, I probably won't be able to because we are almost all going to the same college), countless hours playing WoW, and way to much effort working on my game 11 Gems. In my high school years I somehow managed to achieve Eagle Scout, become a Master Mason, Kora Shriner, and class officer, as well as making numerous paintings and drawings. I still don't know where I got the time. Well, I guess my grades can explain it The years have been great though, mostly thanks to my friends- without them I would have gone as insane as some of them already are. And now, all I have left to say is: Freedom! Oh no, college.

Caitlin Shimamura

Someone once said "beginnings are scary and endings are usually sad- but its the middle that counts the most". Over the past 4 years we have made many memories and though we've waited impatiently for this day to come, it is still sad to see it all end. Tara Leigh stay away from THIN ICE. Kara we'll always have our flooded bathroom in Rome. Lauren remember- its always the chicken. Megan you were my first friend, make sure you are always matching, otherwise life becomes stressful. Mom and Jeff thanks for always being there and making sure I stayed focused. I owe a lot to you and I love you both. Ben thanks for always being there to argue with, love you. Mimi, only you would teach me to talk smack during a card game. Alex Helms you're the best part of everyday and my best friend. I love you. To the class of '07- the past four years wouldn't have been the same without you. "No regrets that's my motto, well that and everybody Wang Chung tonight..."

Nariko Shimamura

Wow, I can't believe I'm a senior. It's been a great, and stressful four years of high school. I went to Oxford Hills for my first two years and made lots of friends, way too many to mention. I moved to Telstar because it was smaller and I could have more one on one with teachers. I made a few friends my short time here and I will cherish them forever, plus teachers. This is my senior year and it started out bad. My cousin Thomas M. Boyd (Tommy Turtle) past away on Sept. 9th. He was 15. My family and I miss him dearly. I got this poem from Tommy's and my best friend, this is my favorite part: "I wish you could've stood here one more day." Well, God needed you more than we did, your Smile, your hugs, and, yes, your charm. Its hard to live here without you kid. I wish this was a dream and I'm waiting for my alarm. Well, I know its not, but I can deal. Written by Alexander Lee Ellingwood. Oh yeah I won't forget my study hall, I Love You Roxy!

Megan Smith

I would first like to thank my family for always being there for me throughout my high school adventure. I wouldn't be where I am today without your love and support. Mom: you have always believed in me and I can't thank you enough, you're the best. Kate Lauren: you're my best friend, thanks for always making me laugh. Dad: thanks for teaching me so many life lessons that I will never forget. To my friends: where would I be without you and our many memories. And to the Class of '07, the time has finally come where we take our separate paths but never forget the memories we have created and the good times we have shared. Good luck in all you do and remember to always follow your dreams!

Jason Thayer

I'd like to thank my family especially my ma for pushing me through no matter how hard I fought back even though this is my second senior year. But it is alot easier the second time. I got to broaden my relationships and experiences with my fellow classmates. And to my friends we had a great time with lots of memories that will last for life. Thanks to Kayla for about strangling me to get my work done. Jennell, stay out of trouble. Albert its about time for a new truck, I got my car for less then your truck and its still running like a champ. Ashley...think about it. And finally Jenkins class, have fun with the next crop of kids. And to anybody I forgot, well you know what to do _____

(your name here)

Louis Thornton

The experts were right, the past four years have flown by. Thanks to all the guys, Ryan, Matty, Gavin, Broomer, Kevin G. Tim F. Danny O. It always amused me how we could make anything into an argument, especially in the locker room. Maxwell, you're my best pal and everyone knows our t-shirt idea was the best. Let's quickly review soccer 06: best regular season record ever in Telstar soccer history, most goals-single season, and the big one M.V.C. Champions 2006. To all the '07 females, thanks for letting us guys be, well, us for these four years. Nasta/Thornton's thank you for supporting me during the bad times. Kara Thurlow

Mom and Dad- Thank you for always being there. You have given me everything I need and I appreciate it so much. Love you. Jonah- You are quite the character. Growing up wouldn't have been the same with out you. Love you. Robin and Kate Lauren you are like a second family to me. Thanks for the talks and advice. Love you. To all of my friends it has been something else. From diapers to caps and gowns weve been through it all. Thanks for laughing until our sides hurt, crying until there were no more tears and the memories that will last a lifetime. Don't forget the memories weve shared: Carthage, the snow bank, Halloween and the three weekends after, bowling, 45, the many good times at Megs house, Dennys, our grad box, itchy nose, driving to McDonalds with the permits, North Carolina trips, driving around with Lauren for a week, driving through Rumford, to name a few. Good Luck Class of 2007. Well always have our memories.

James Witman

Kevin Wight

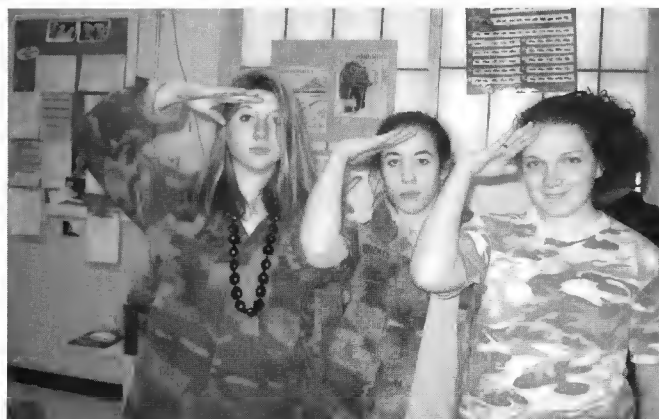

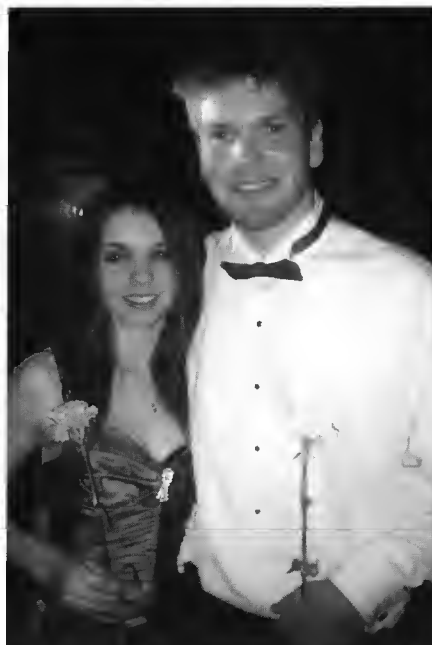

I'll first start out with the Army, since my life is now based on what I do and how well I do it. I'm proud to be a soldier for the best fighting force of America. Its hard to understand that my life is just beginning, it feels like its coming to an end. The 4 years of High School I went through was the best time of my life. I have a lot of good memories with my friends, and hanging out with the crew. Putting in a lot of hours working on my truck with Braydon's help. Ive also spent a lot of countless hours throughout the past years trying to make it to graduation day. After years of anticipation just waiting for graduation, I finally made it, but now I don't want this to end. But all good things must come to an end. That being said I would like to thank all the people who helped me through this and who always have my back. Parents, Friends, and teachers, much appreciated.

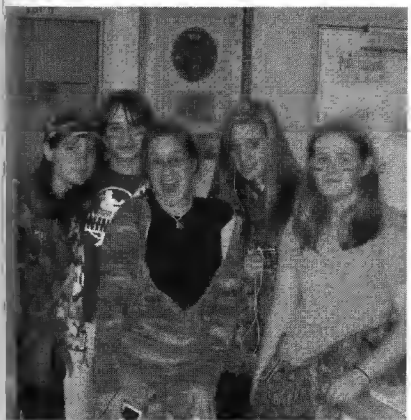

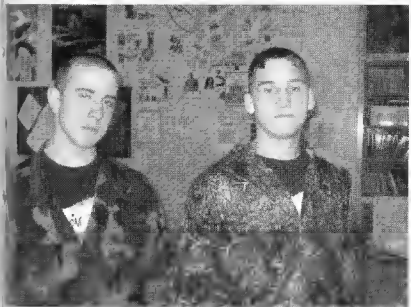

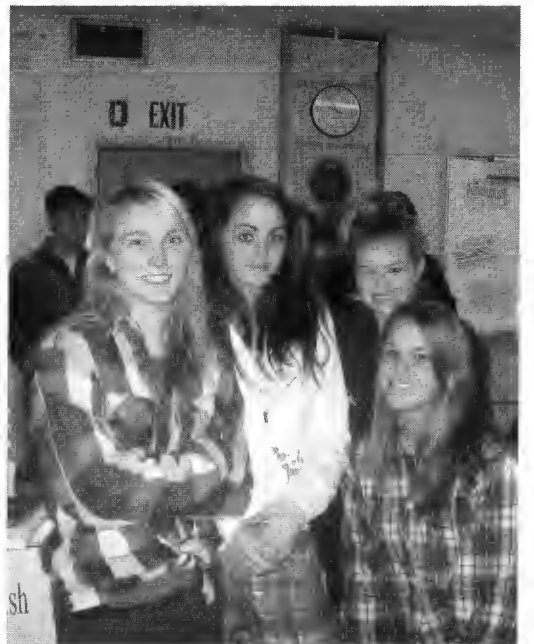

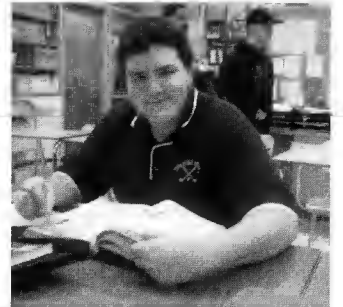

Heather York

Matthew Zinchuk

As I look through years of Telstar yearbooks to distinguish the right things to mention I find students write memories from their school days. I cant do that each day with the class of 07 was unique, creating more happy, sad, and exiting memories then my brain and this message can possess. Every day was full of classic memories. Being apart of Telstar High Schools class of 2007 has made me the young man I have become today and I have nothing but thanks to each and every one of my fellow class-mates for showing me the way. I love you all and will miss you. I also want to thank the school system and everyone involved for dealing with myself and my three siblings (Daniel, Brian, and Kevin) who have grown to be the finest of scholars, a status which I hope to reach with the knowledge you have provided. Finish each day and be done with it. You have done what you could. Some blunders and absurdities no doubt crept in; forget them as soon as you can. Tomorrow is a new day; begin it well and serenely and with too high a spirit to be encumbered with your old nonsense.

To laugh often and much; to win the respect of intelligent people and the affection of children; to earn the appreciation of honest critics and endure the betrayal of false friends; to appreciate beauty, to find the best in others; to leave the world a bit better, whether by a healthy child, a garden patch, or a redeemed social condition; to know even one life has breathed easier because you have lived. This is to have succeeded.

Mom & Dad*

Ken,
We just wanted to let you know that we are proud of the young man you have become. We hope that you follow your dreams and go on to do great things. As we were looking through pictures, we found that you made a really cute bunny and that you have ALWAYS been interested in cars.
We love you,
Mom, Dad (Ken), Cheyenne,
Spencer and Grammy

Kayla & Tonie,
I have been so lucky to have the two most beautiful sisters in the world. I'll never forget the laughter, and the tears we've cried together. I'll always be there for both of you! The most important thing in life is family. I wish you guys all the strength and patience to make a new life for yourselves. I love you both more than words can say. Just remember to keep swimming.
Your sister,
Amber

The yearbook staff would like to thank everyone who helped make this year's book a reality. Special thanks go out to Alison Aloisio at the Bethel Citizen, Russ Dillingham and other photographers at the Sun Journal and Jim Hannigan of Intervale Photography for their help with providing many of the photos in our sports section. Thanks also to parents for providing baby photos of their seniors. As always, we thank the Telstar staff and administrators for their patience with group photo day and any other interruptions to the schedule we may cause.

Helping people, like the graduates of Telstar Regional High School, is what we do best. We always have and we always will!

Congratulations Class of 2007
